

USH8: Chapter 9 Quiz

...

Mr. Harmon 256

Question 1

Thomas Jefferson's ideas on government were similar to the French philosophy known as _____.

- A) monarchism
- B) laissez-faire
- C) fait accompli
- D) coup d'etat

Question 2

The principles of judicial review were established in the case of _____.

- A) Marbury v. Madison
- B) McCulloch v. Maryland
- C) Gibbons v. Ogden
- D) Plessy v. Ferguson

Question 3

An important guide for the Lewis and Clark expedition was _____.

- A) Zebulon Pike
- B) the Prophet
- C) Sacagawea
- D) Tecumseh

Question 4

Alexander Hamilton was killed in a duel with _____

- A) Thomas Jefferson
- B) John Adams
- C) Aaron Burr
- D) Albert Gallatin

Question 5

Seizing sailors from one ship and forcing them into military service on another is called _____.

- A) the draft
- B) blockading
- C) an embargo
- D) impressment

Question 6

How was the election of 1800 finally resolved:

1. The House of representatives decided the election after 35 ballot attempts.
2. The Supreme Court intervened
3. After a long period of contention, President Adams finally conceded
4. After a long period of contention, Jefferson finally conceded.

Question 7

True or False

Congress had to decide the election of 1800.

Question 8

Who lived at Monticello?

- A. Jefferson
- B. Adams
- C. Burr
- D. Hamilton

Question 9

Which is not one of future states that was part of the Louisiana Purchase?

- A. Missouri
- B. South Dakota
- C. Montana
- D. Alabama

Question 10

The main geographic barrier that made Westward travel so difficult was...

- A. Mississippi River
- B. Missouri River
- C. Rocky Mountains
- D. Grand Canyon

Question 11

Which country sold the Louisiana Territory to Jefferson?

- A. Spain
- B. France
- C. England
- D. Portugal

Question 12

True or False

New Orleans and the Mississippi River were incredibly valuable to the United States because it allowed the South to easily ship cash crops through the Gulf of Mexico to destinations in Europe.

Question 13

True or False

War between the French and the British was GOOD for the American economy.

Question 14

True or False

Following the War of 1812, the Federalists were viewed as unpatriotic.

Question 15

True or False

People of the South were less apt to support the War of 1812 because of business ties to England.

Question 16

True or False.

War Hawks was a nickname given to Republicans in congress who were supportive of fighting the war.

Question 17

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Acting U.S. Secretary of Defense Mark Esper on Thursday announced that "the game has changed" for how President Donald Trump's administration deals with Iran, indicating a willingness to use pre-emptive strikes against militias tied to the Persian Gulf state—comments that provoked immediate pushback from progressives and anti-war advocates.

"The _____ must be celebrating," Parsi added.

Common Desire: 1/2/20

Question 18

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Russia, seeing prospects for multi-billion dollar deals, ruled out extending a United Nations-approved arms _____ on Iran that expires in October next year, despite U.S. warnings that lifting the restrictions will jeopardize global security.

U.S. Secretary of State Michael Pompeo earlier this year warned that allowing renewed weapons sales to Iran will mean the country will be “unleashed to create new global turmoil.”

Bloomberg: 12/27/19

Question 19

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

But at the foundation of _____ is a simple notion that the job of the federal government is to serve its people rather than some other people or some abstract idea — like "the economy." This seems selfish and offensive to some. It seems almost self-evident to us.

Washington Examiner: 1/1/20

Question 20

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Over the last few years, there has been a growing feeling in many quarters that the federal government has adopted a _____ (and overly business-friendly) attitude toward consumer data privacy.

Mondaq: 1/14/20

Question 1

Thomas Jefferson's ideas on government were similar to the French philosophy known as _____.

- A) monarchism
- B) laissez-faire
- C) fait accompli
- D) coup d'etat

Question 1

Thomas Jefferson's ideas on government were similar to the French philosophy known as _____.

A) monarchism

B) laissez-faire

C) fait accompli

D) coup d'etat

Question 2

The principles of judicial review were established in the case of _____.

- A) Marbury v. Madison
- B) McCulloch v. Maryland
- C) Gibbons v. Ogden
- D) Plessy v. Ferguson

Question 2

The principles of judicial review were established in the case of _____.

- A) Marbury v. Madison
- B) McCulloch v. Maryland
- C) Gibbons v. Ogden
- D) Plessy v. Ferguson

Question 3

An important guide for the Lewis and Clark expedition was _____.

- A) Zebulon Pike
- B) the Prophet
- C) Sacagawea
- D) Tecumseh

Question 3

An important guide for the Lewis and Clark expedition was _____.

A) Zebulon Pike

B) the Prophet

C) Sacagawea

D) Tecumseh

Question 4

Alexander Hamilton was killed in a duel with _____

- A) Thomas Jefferson
- B) John Adams
- C) Aaron Burr
- D) Albert Gallatin

Question 4

Alexander Hamilton was killed in a duel with _____

A) Thomas Jefferson

B) John Adams

C) Aaron Burr

D) Albert Gallatin

Question 5

Seizing sailors from one ship and forcing them into military service on another is called _____.

- A) the draft
- B) blockading
- C) an embargo
- D) impressment

Question 5

Seizing sailors from one ship and forcing them into military service on another is called _____.

- A) the draft
- B) blockading
- C) an embargo
- D) impressment

Question 6

How was the election of 1800 finally resolved:

1. The House of representatives decided the election after 35 ballot attempts.
2. The Supreme Court intervened
3. After a long period of contention, President Adams finally conceded
4. After a long period of contention, Jefferson finally conceded.

Question 6

How was the election of 1800 finally resolved:

1. The House of representatives decided the election after 35 ballot attempts.
2. The Supreme Court intervened
3. After a long period of contention, President Adams finally conceded
4. After a long period of contention, Jefferson finally conceded.

Question 7

True or False

Congress had to decide the election of 1800.

Question 7

True or False

Congress had to decide the election of 1800.

Question 8

Who lived at Monticello?

- A. Jefferson
- B. Adams
- C. Burr
- D. Hamilton

Question 8

Who lived at Monticello?

- A. Jefferson
- B. Adams
- C. Burr
- D. Hamilton

Question 9

Which is not one of future states that was part of the Louisiana Purchase?

- A. Missouri
- B. South Dakota
- C. Montana
- D. Alabama

Question 9

Which is not one of future states that was part of the Louisiana Purchase?

- A. Missouri
- B. South Dakota
- C. Montana
- D. Alabama

Question 10

The main geographic barrier that made Westward travel so difficult was...

- A. Mississippi River
- B. Missouri River
- C. Rocky Mountains
- D. Grand Canyon

Question 10

The main geographic barrier that made Westward travel so difficult was...

- A. Mississippi River
- B. Missouri River
- C. Rocky Mountains
- D. Grand Canyon

Question 11

Which country sold the Louisiana Territory to Jefferson?

- A. Spain
- B. France
- C. England
- D. Portugal

Question 11

Which country sold the Louisiana Territory to Jefferson?

- A. Spain
- B. France
- C. England
- D. Portugal

Question 12

True or False

New Orleans and the Mississippi River were incredibly valuable to the United States because it allowed the South to easily ship cash crops through the Gulf of Mexico to destinations in Europe.

Question 12

True or False

New Orleans and the Mississippi River were incredibly valuable to the United States because it allowed the South to easily ship cash crops through the Gulf of Mexico to destinations in Europe.

Question 13

True or False

War between the French and the British was GOOD for the American economy.

Question 13

True or False

War between the French and the British was GOOD for the American economy.

Question 14

True or False

Following the War of 1812, the Federalists were viewed as unpatriotic.

Question 14

True or False

Following the War of 1812, the Federalists were viewed as unpatriotic.

Question 15

True or False

People of the South were less apt to support the War of 1812 because of business ties to England.

Question 15

True or False

People of the South were less apt to support the War of 1812 because of business ties to England.

Question 16

True or False.

War Hawks was a nickname given to Republicans in congress who were supportive of fighting the war.

Question 16

True or False.

War Hawks was a nickname given to Republicans in congress who were supportive of fighting the war.

Question 17

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Acting U.S. Secretary of Defense Mark Esper on Thursday announced that "the game has changed" for how President Donald Trump's administration deals with Iran, indicating a willingness to use pre-emptive strikes against militias tied to the Persian Gulf state—comments that provoked immediate pushback from progressives and anti-war advocates.

"The _____ must be celebrating," Parsi added.

Common Desire: 1/2/20

Question 17

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Acting U.S. Secretary of Defense Mark Esper on Thursday announced that "the game has changed" for how President Donald Trump's administration deals with Iran, indicating a willingness to use pre-emptive strikes against militias tied to the Persian Gulf state—comments that provoked immediate pushback from progressives and anti-war advocates.

"The War Hawks must be celebrating," Parsi added.

Common Desire: 1/2/20

Question 18

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Russia, seeing prospects for multi-billion dollar deals, ruled out extending a United Nations-approved arms _____ on Iran that expires in October next year, despite U.S. warnings that lifting the restrictions will jeopardize global security.

U.S. Secretary of State Michael Pompeo earlier this year warned that allowing renewed weapons sales to Iran will mean the country will be “unleashed to create new global turmoil.”

Bloomberg: 12/27/19

Question 18

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Russia, seeing prospects for multi-billion dollar deals, ruled out extending a United Nations-approved arms embargo on Iran that expires in October next year, despite U.S. warnings that lifting the restrictions will jeopardize global security.

U.S. Secretary of State Michael Pompeo earlier this year warned that allowing renewed weapons sales to Iran will mean the country will be “unleashed to create new global turmoil.”

Bloomberg: 12/27/19

Question 19

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

But at the foundation of _____ is a simple notion that the job of the federal government is to serve its people rather than some other people or some abstract idea — like "the economy." This seems selfish and offensive to some. It seems almost self-evident to us.

Washington Examiner: 1/1/20

Question 19

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

But at the foundation of nationalism is a simple notion that the job of the federal government is to serve its people rather than some other people or some abstract idea — like "the economy." This seems selfish and offensive to some. It seems almost self-evident to us.

Washington Examiner: 1/1/20

Question 20

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Over the last few years, there has been a growing feeling in many quarters that the federal government has adopted a _____ (and overly business-friendly) attitude toward consumer data privacy.

Mondaq: 1/14/20

Question 20

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 9 vocab term.

Over the last few years, there has been a growing feeling in many quarters that the federal government has adopted a laissez-fair (and overly business-friendly) attitude toward consumer data privacy.

Mondaq: 1/14/20