

USH8: Chapter 10 Quiz

...

Mr. Harmon 256

✓ Question 1

In the United States, the Industrial Revolution began in _____.

- A) New England
- B) the South
- C) the Mid-Atlantic region
- D) the Ohio River valley

Question 2

Canals were responsible for all of the following except _____.

- A) helping to unite the growing country
- B) lowering shipping costs
- C) reducing sectional tensions
- D) bringing prosperity to towns along their routes

Question 3

As part of the Missouri Compromise, _____ entered the union as a free state.

- A) Maine
- B) Missouri
- C) Louisiana
- D) Ohio

Question 4

Which is a reason, discussed in class, that sectionalism was so widespread in the early United States.

- A. Congress subdivided its chambers based upon geographic regions.
- B. The states were older than the country itself, many people felt deeper loyalty to their states than the country itself.
- C. Both of the above
- D. None of the above

Question 5

The Missouri Compromise settled the fear that...

- A. One side, North or South, would get greater representation in congress.
- B. Slavery would legal in all Western territories.
- C. Both of the Above
- D. None of the Above

Question 6

Which country is most often credited with the start of the Industrial Revolution

- A. France
- B. England
- C. The United States
- D. China

Question 7

The Factory System in the United States developed most prominently in this area of the country...

- A. The Northeast
- B. The South
- C. The West
- D. The Appalachians

Question 8

Disarmament under President Thomas Jefferson was mostly due to...

- A. Jefferson's belief in a small Federal Government
- B. Jefferson's belief in a large Federal Government.
- C. The Federalists' view on the military.
- D. None of the Above

Question 9

One of the reasons canals were so important, and a priority for the United States was...

- A. They gave the United States a unique military advantage over rivals
- B. It reduced the need for slave labor in the South.
- C. Water travel was still the easiest, most efficient way to travel and ship goods.
- D. None of the above

Question 10

True or False

Canals were eventually made obsolete with the building of railroads.

Question 11

True or False

The cotton gin actually increased the demand for slavery.

Question 12

True or False

The National Road made travel through Rocky Mountains feasible for the first time.

Question 13

True or False

The Monroe Doctrine stated that the United States would stay out of any European conflicts over territories in the Caribbean and South America.

Question 14

True or False

Tariffs are taxes on imported goods.

Question 15

True or False

The American System was a system of tariffs to promote American made goods.

Question 16

True or False

Despite the fact that the United States promoted the building of roads and canals, they actually desired that people would stay in the East.

Question 17

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

Caltech's suit was filed in federal court in Los Angeles in 2016, and alleged that hundreds of millions of Apple's devices with Broadcom Wi-Fi chips infringed on their _____. Broadcom supplies wireless chips for a variety of Apple products, including the iPhone.

Tech Crunch- 1/30/20

Question 18

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

The Regional Complete Count Committee said that every person not counted in the _____ is a potential loss of $1,535. Over the course of ten years that's $15,350 for just one person. This funding impacts roads, schools and other programs.

"We have one shot," said Oregon High School Teacher Aaron Sitze. "It's once in a decade and getting people to realize that there is a very real consequence if you don't answer just nine questions."

WIFR- 1/30/20

Question 19

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

Tolls rates recently have increased on the Pennsylvania _____ and the crossings that link New Jersey and New York City.

Transport Topics: 1/7/20

Question 20

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

ISTANBUL - Greece is pushing back against Turkish demands that it _____ 16 Aegean islands. The Turkish government maintains it is defending Turkey's rights and remains committed to negotiation, but analysts warn Turkey's increasingly "robust diplomacy" threatens to isolate Ankara and escalate regional tensions.

VOA News: 1/27/20

✓ Question 1

In the United States, the Industrial Revolution began in _____.

- A) New England
- B) the South
- C) the Mid-Atlantic region
- D) the Ohio River valley

✓ Question 1

In the United States, the Industrial Revolution began in _____.

- A) New England
- B) the South
- C) the Mid-Atlantic region
- D) the Ohio River valley

Question 2

Canals were responsible for all of the following except _____.

- A) helping to unite the growing country
- B) lowering shipping costs
- C) reducing sectional tensions
- D) bringing prosperity to towns along their routes

Question 2

Canals were responsible for all of the following except _____.

- A) helping to unite the growing country
- B) lowering shipping costs
- C) reducing sectional tensions
- D) bringing prosperity to towns along their routes

Question 3

As part of the Missouri Compromise, _____ entered the union as a free state.

- A) Maine
- B) Missouri
- C) Louisiana
- D) Ohio

✓ Question 3

As part of the Missouri Compromise, _____ entered the union as a free state.

- A) Maine
- B) Missouri
- C) Louisiana
- D) Ohio

Question 4

Which is a reason, discussed in class, that sectionalism was so widespread in the early United States.

- A. Congress subdivided its chambers based upon geographic regions.
- B. The states were older than the country itself, many people felt deeper loyalty to their states than the country itself.
- C. Both of the above
- D. None of the above

Question 4

Which is a reason, discussed in class, that sectionalism was so widespread in the early United States.

- A. Congress subdivided its chambers based upon geographic regions.
- B. The states were older than the country itself, many people felt deeper loyalty to their states than the country itself.
- C. Both of the above
- D. None of the above

Question 5

The Missouri Compromise settled the fear that...

- A. One side, North or South, would get greater representation in congress.
- B. Slavery would legal in all Western territories.
- C. Both of the Above
- D. None of the Above

Question 5

The Missouri Compromise settled the fear that...

- A. One side, North or South, would get greater representation in congress.
- B. Slavery would legal in all Western territories.
- C. Both of the Above
- D. None of the Above

Question 6

Which country is most often credited with the start of the Industrial Revolution

- A. France
- B. England
- C. The United States
- D. China

Question 6

Which country is most often credited with the start of the Industrial Revolution

- A. France
- B. England
- C. The United States
- D. China

Question 7

The Factory System in the United States developed most prominently in this area of the country...

- A. The Northeast
- B. The South
- C. The West
- D. The Appalachians

Question 7

The Factory System in the United States developed most prominently in this area of the country...

- A. The Northeast
- B. The South
- C. The West
- D. The Appalachians

Question 8

Disarmament under President Thomas Jefferson was mostly due to...

- A. Jefferson's belief in a small Federal Government
- B. Jefferson's belief in a large Federal Government.
- C. The Federalists' view on the military.
- D. None of the Above

Question 8

Disarmament under President Thomas Jefferson was mostly due to...

- A. Jefferson's belief in a small Federal Government
- B. Jefferson's belief in a large Federal Government.
- C. The Federalists' view on the military.
- D. None of the Above

Question 9

One of the reasons canals were so important, and a priority for the United States was...

- A. They gave the United States a unique military advantage over rivals
- B. It reduced the need for slave labor in the South.
- C. Water travel was still the easiest, most efficient way to travel and ship goods.
- D. None of the above

Question 9

One of the reasons canals were so important, and a priority for the United States was...

- A. They gave the United States a unique military advantage over rivals
- B. It reduced the need for slave labor in the South.
- C. Water travel was still the easiest, most efficient way to travel and ship goods.
- D. None of the above

Question 10

True or False

Canals were eventually made obsolete with the building of railroads.

Question 10

True or False

Canals were eventually made obsolete with the building of railroads.

Question 11

True or False

The cotton gin actually increased the demand for slavery.

Question 11

True or False

The cotton gin actually increased the demand for slavery.

Question 12

True or False

The National Road made travel through Rocky Mountains feasible for the first time.

Question 12

True or False

The National Road made travel through Rocky Mountains feasible for the first time.

Question 13

True or False

The Monroe Doctrine stated that the United States would stay out of any European conflicts over territories in the Caribbean and South America.

Question 13

True or False

The Monroe Doctrine stated that the United States would stay out of any European conflicts over territories in the Caribbean and South America.

Question 14

True or False

Tariffs are taxes on imported goods.

Question 14

True or False

Tariffs are taxes on imported goods.

Question 15

True or False

The American System was a system of tariffs to promote American made goods.

Question 15

True or False

The American System was a system of tariffs to promote American made goods.

Question 16

True or False

Despite the fact that the United States promoted the building of roads and canals, they actually desired that people would stay in the East.

Question 16

True or False

Despite the fact that the United States promoted the building of roads and canals, they actually desired that people would stay in the East.

Question 17

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

Caltech's suit was filed in federal court in Los Angeles in 2016, and alleged that hundreds of millions of Apple's devices with Broadcom Wi-Fi chips infringed on their _____. Broadcom supplies wireless chips for a variety of Apple products, including the iPhone.

Tech Crunch- 1/30/20

Question 17

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

Caltech's suit was filed in federal court in Los Angeles in 2016, and alleged that hundreds of millions of Apple's devices with Broadcom Wi-Fi chips infringed on their patents. Broadcom supplies wireless chips for a variety of Apple products, including the iPhone.

Tech Crunch- 1/30/20

Question 18

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

The Regional Complete Count Committee said that every person not counted in the _____ is a potential loss of $1,535. Over the course of ten years that's $15,350 for just one person. This funding impacts roads, schools and other programs.

"We have one shot," said Oregon High School Teacher Aaron Sitze. "It's once in a decade and getting people to realize that there is a very real consequence if you don't answer just nine questions."

WIFR- 1/30/20

Question 18

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

The Regional Complete Count Committee said that every person not counted in the census is a potential loss of $1,535. Over the course of ten years that's $15,350 for just one person. This funding impacts roads, schools and other programs.

"We have one shot," said Oregon High School Teacher Aaron Sitze. "It's once in a decade and getting people to realize that there is a very real consequence if you don't answer just nine questions."

WIFR- 1/30/20

Question 19

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

Tolls rates recently have increased on the Pennsylvania _____ and the crossings that link New Jersey and New York City.

Transport Topics: 1/7/20

Question 19

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

Tolls rates recently have increased on the Pennsylvania turnpike and the crossings that link New Jersey and New York City.

Transport Topics: 1/7/20

Question 20

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

ISTANBUL - Greece is pushing back against Turkish demands that it _____ 16 Aegean islands. The Turkish government maintains it is defending Turkey's rights and remains committed to negotiation, but analysts warn Turkey's increasingly "robust diplomacy" threatens to isolate Ankara and escalate regional tensions.

VOA News: 1/27/20

Question 20

Fill in the blank from a recent news article with the most appropriate chapter 10 vocab term.

ISTANBUL - Greece is pushing back against Turkish demands that it demilitarize 16 Aegean islands. The Turkish government maintains it is defending Turkey's rights and remains committed to negotiation, but analysts warn Turkey's increasingly "robust diplomacy" threatens to isolate Ankara and escalate regional tensions.

VOA News: 1/27/20