

NAME _____ COMMA EXERCISE

1. January February and March are cold bitter months in Minnesota.
2. Jeff plays baseball in the spring tennis in the summer and basketball in the winter.
3. The reporter a prize-winning journalist overheard a startling conversation.
4. To tell the truth Henry venison with turnips and boiled mustard greens is not my favorite meal.
5. Trembling from cold and fatigue the swimmer a refuge from the mainland finally reached the beach.
6. The British however usually do not like iced tea.
7. Yes I remembered to bring the napkins and cups for the picnic.
8. Kara's performance the highlight of the evening was videotaped.
9. When the test was over Mia felt relieved.
10. After she talked with the coach Susan felt better about the loss.
11. Thrilled at the prospect of a summer in Maine Mark took the job.
12. I went home and I called my friend Maria.
13. Shawn said "The breakfast will be held in the banquet hall."
14. "I need a volunteer for my experiment" said Dr. Jekyll.
15. The gentleman who left his wallet here yesterday should come to the lost-and-found department.
16. Hal Smith who left his wallet here yesterday should come to the lost-and-found department.
17. The Brazilian city that is best known is Rio de Janeiro.
18. Brasilia which is 400 miles inland is now the capital.
19. My summer address will be 205 Linden Street Madison Wisconsin 54848.
20. On November 1 1835 Texas became independent.

21. A pleasant courteous guide told the tourists when Greece was founded how it was governed and what its major exports were.
22. As the children were lifted onto the ponies their eyes widened brightened and seemed to smile.
23. Tired crews of workers picked grapes in the hot dusty fields.
24. In the hallway Mark is a package for you.
25. The prices of some foods especially fish have risen.
26. Moreover other nations share our pollution problems.
27. Raphael please add the pepper and parsley to the stew now.
28. Almost unknown in her own time Emily Dickinson has become one of America's most widely read poets.
29. Captain Kidd supposedly buried treasure but no one has found it.
30. At the tent sale on Saturday Julio bought a new red pickup truck.