

- She gave me a gift.
- Me dio un regalo.

- He threw you the ball.
- Te lanzó la pelota.

- He bought her the book.
- Le compró el libro.

- She gave me a gift. She gave a gift to me.
- Me dio un regalo.
- He threw you the ball. He threw the ball to you.
- Te lanzó la pelota.
- He bought her the book. He bought the book for her.
- Le compró el libro.

- IO Pronouns often used with verbs of communication.

- I spoke to him.

- Le hablé.

- We write to them.

- Les escribimos.

- I tell her the truth.

- Le digo la verdad.

- DO REPLACES THE NOUN
- IO WORKS WITH THE NOUN
- The Noun and IO Pronoun work TOGETHER in the sentence

- He gave Mary a gift. / He gave a gift to Mary.
- Le dio un regalo a Mary.

- He threw Jorge the ball. / He threw the ball to Jorge.
- Le lanzó la pelota a Jorge.

- He wrote Elena a letter. / He wrote a letter to Elena.
- Le escribió una carta a Elena.

- The teacher reads the students a book.
- The teacher reads a book to the students.
- El maestro les lee un libro a los alumnos.

- I spoke to Paco and María.
- Les hablé a Paco y a María.

- May need to clarify le or les.
- Le di un regalo.
- Le di un regalo a él.
- Le di un regalo a ella.
- Le di un regalo a usted.
- Les estoy hablando.
- Les estoy hablando a ellos.
- Les estoy hablando a ustedes.

- In First and Second Person can use for emphasis.
- Me dio el chocolate a mí.
- Te estoy hablando a ti.
- ¿El Sr. Harmon nos está hablando a nosotros?

