

Double Object Review

- Remember that we have already learned and practiced using double objects in one sentence
- They are placed before the verb/verb phrase
- 2 “I” pronouns makes the IOP turn into “se” always
- Order is IOP then DOP ALWAYS

Direct Object Pronouns
Indirect Object Pronouns
Reflexive Pronouns
Can attach to the end of
3 types of verbs ONLY:

1. INFINITIVES
2. PRESENT PARTICIPLES (-ING FORMS)
3. STAY TUNED - you'll find out 2nd semester

Double Objects at the End

- When adding 2 object pronouns to the end of a verb you must add an accent to keep the stress of the original word
  - I was buying it for her. (Present Participle, -ing)
    - Estaba comprádoselo.
  - He was eating it for her.
    - Estaba comiédoselo

Double Objects at the End

- With infinitive verbs:
  - She wanted to buy him a car.
    - Ella quería comprárselo.
  - We preferred to eat the fruits for you.
    - Preferimos comértelas.
  - You will want to serve the food to them.
    - Querrás servírsela.
